

PITTSBURGH, Pennsylvania:

*The Golden Triangle and home to
The City of Champions.*

The city of Pittsburgh consists of 90 unique neighborhoods, each with its own history and unique character.

With nationally a recognized aquarium, aviary, and zoo, Pittsburgh abounds with museums, parks, and green space: a metropolitan city with a small town soul.

Awarded the distinction as one of America's Most Livable Cities by Forbes, Pittsburgh has transformed from the "Steel City" to a nationally recognized "Green City." Chosen by President Obama for the location of 2009 G20 Summit, Pittsburgh hosted 20 foreign government leaders.

Find out more about the City of Champions:

- City of Pittsburgh Official Site <http://pittsburghpa.gov>
- VisitPittsburgh.com <http://www.visitpittsburgh.com>
- About Pittsburgh <http://www.aboutpgh.com>
- Living Pittsburgh <http://livingpittsburgh.com>

In the News – Living in Pittsburgh

- More Reasons to Live in Pittsburgh
<http://www.nationalgeographic.com/adventure/relocating/pittsburgh-pennsylvania.html>
- What Pittsburgh Can Teach The Rest of the Country About Living Well
Huffington Post (December 18, 2013)
http://www.huffingtonpost.com/2013/12/18/pittsburgh-health\_n\_4339476.html
- America's Most Livable Cities
Forbes (April 19, 2010)
<http://www.forbes.com/2010/04/29/cities-livable-pittsburgh-lifestyle-real-estate-top-ten-jobs-crime-income.html>

PITTSBURGH: Sports & Recreation

NBL: Pittsburgh Pirates

Whether it is baseball, hockey, football, soccer, or rugby, to gladden the heart of the professional team sport enthusiast, Pittsburgh –“The City of Champions” – has them all!

NHL: Pittsburgh Penguins

NFL: Pittsburgh Steelers

Oakmont Country Club

And, for the Golf enthusiast, Pittsburgh's Oakmont Country Club has hosted the U.S. Open, U.S. Women's Open, PGA Championships, and U.S. Amateur Championship. Oakmont is consistently ranked in the top five of Golf Digests 100 Greatest Golf Courses in America.

Pittsburgh also offers an incredible variety of recreational opportunities.

For biking, running, or even cross-country skiing, you cannot beat the Great Allegheny Passage (GAP).

The Great Allegheny Passage is 339 miles (546 km) of central trail in a network of continuous, non-motorized corridor. This long-distance, hiker-biker trail covers hundreds of miles through the Allegheny region of the Appalachian Mountains, connecting Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania to Washington, D.C.

Arts and Entertainment

Benedum Center for the Performing Arts

237 7th Street
Pittsburgh, PA 15222

The Benedum Center for the Performing Arts, a Pittsburgh Cultural Trust theater, is a focal point of Pittsburgh's Cultural District. The 2,800-seat theater is home to Pittsburgh Cultural Trust presentations including PNC Broadway Across America, Pittsburgh Dance Council, CD Live, Pittsburgh International Children's Theater, Cohen & Grigsby Trust Presents, and First Night Pittsburgh.

Heinz Hall for the Performing Arts

600 Penn Ave
Pittsburgh, PA 15222

Heinz Hall for the Performing Arts is the cornerstone of the Cultural District of Pittsburgh. Dedicated in 1971 and renovated in 1995, this cultural-entertainment focal point of the Golden Triangle has helped spur the continuing economic and cultural revitalization of downtown Pittsburgh. With its international reputation for grandeur and excellence as a concert hall and showplace, the 2,661-seat Heinz Hall is the home of the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra.

The Frick Art & Historical Center

7227 Reynolds Street
Pittsburgh, PA 15208

Experience the culture and refinement of the Gilded Age at the Frick Art & Historical Center, located on beautifully landscaped gardens in Pittsburgh's East End. The museum and its multiple collections are the legacy of Helen Clay Frick, daughter of Henry Clay Frick, one of America's greatest industrialists and art collectors. Here, you can view fine art, decorative artifacts, magnificent exhibitions, and vintage cars and carriages. You can also take part in educational programs and concerts, enjoy fine dining, and much more.

Phipps Conservatory and Botanical Gardens

1059 Shady Ave
Pittsburgh, PA 15232

Appointed to the National Register of Historic Places by the National Park Service, the Phipps Conservatory and Botanical Gardens is comprised of the thirteen-room conservatory itself and the adjoining grounds. In addition to hosting seasonal Flower Shows, the Conservatory has many primary flora exhibits, and the sophisticated glass and metalwork of the Lord & Burnham conservatory offers an interesting example of Victorian greenhouse architecture.

Phipps is one of the "greenest" facilities in the world. The entrance pavilion of the Phipps Conservatory has silver-level LEED certification. Its Center for Sustainable Landscapes has received a Platinum certification and fulfilled the Living Building Challenge for net-zero energy, while its greenhouse production facility has received Platinum certification, the first and only greenhouse to be so certified.

Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh

Carnegie Science Center

1 Allegheny Ave.

Pittsburgh, PA 15212

Recipient of the 2003 National Award for Museum Service, the Carnegie Science Center delights, educates, and inspires by connecting science and technology through interactive experiences. The Carnegie Science Center has established itself internationally as a leading creator of quality planetarium shows with innovative content through the Buhl Digital Planetarium. Interact with the stars in the Omnimax theater; learn the basic science and technology of sports—balance, trajectory, center of gravity, momentum, and energy transfer; join Mr. Wizard's Science Show; or tour the submarine USS Requin submarine. The Carnegie Science Center has it all!

Carnegie Museum of Art & Carnegie Museum of Natural History

4400 Forbes Avenue

Pittsburgh, PA 15213

The Carnegie Museum of Art is arguably the first museum of contemporary art in the United States, collecting the “Old Masters of Tomorrow” since the inception of the Carnegie International in 1896. Today, the museum is one of the most dynamic major art institutions in America, with a collection of more than 35,000 objects featuring a broad spectrum of visual arts, including painting, sculpture, prints, drawings, photographs, architectural casts, renderings, and models, decorative arts and design, and film, video, and digital imagery.

The Carnegie Museum of Natural History is among the top natural history museums in the country. It maintains, preserves, and interprets an extraordinary collection of 22 million objects and scientific specimens used to broaden understanding of evolution, conservation, and biodiversity. The Carnegie Museum of Natural History collects and cares for specimens and artifacts that document the history of life and human cultures. Through field studies and collection-based scientific research, the scientists and researchers of the Carnegie Museum of Natural History generate new knowledge and promote stewardship of Earth and its natural resources.